Tucumcari - Named from the Mountain Tocom-Kari Whether fiction or fact, the accepted story is that the mountain (which you see from your doorstep)
. . . is named for Kari, the daughter of an Indian Chief, and her lover Tocom. In memory of their love, Wautonomah, her father, named the mountain Tocom-Kari. Later it was changed to Tucumcari - for the town of the present day.
